TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT

Registration to Proficiency testing

The laboratory willing to participate in proficiency testings, should e-mail to info@microanalitica.eu, the Proficiency Testing application form. Within three days from the receipt of the application form Microanalitica will e-mail you the enrollment confirmation. The Proficiency Testing application form will establish an ongoing contract between Microanalitica srl unipersonale and the laboratory.

Participation in proficiency testing

Service includes:

Support for the duration of the proficiency testing selected from the laboratory;

Instructions and details for carrying out the tests;

Final report of the proficiency testing selected;

Microanalitica will provide notices and informations related to proficiency testing solely and exclusively to the personnel stated in the application form.

Part of the material, excluding the unstable ones, will be available to customers for possible complaints and appeals up to 30 days from the publication of the final reports. Any issues relating to the final report of the proficiency testing must be received by Microanalitica within 30 working days from its publication.

Findings confidentiality

Microanalitica will ensure the anonymity of the laboratory in the presentation of proficiency testing, to this purpose, the results submitted will be identified by a laboratory alphanumeric code, known by the same laboratory and Microanalitica.

Delivery conditions of test materials

Test materials will be delivered at the address specified on the application form, by courier according to the time scheduling for every single course in the operating instructions and details downloadable from www.microanalitica.eu website.

Sending test results

The operating instructions and details for each test schedule included are downloadable by website.

The form that must be completed by the laboratory for sending test results to Microanalitica, will be sent by e-mail same time of delivery of the test material.

Test results must be sent by the laboratory by scheduled date at the address results@microanalitica.eu

An e-mail stating the recording of received results will be sent within 3 days from results forwarding.

Payment terms

Private labs: within 5 working days from the closing date of registration will be issued an invoice, the laboratory will have to make within 30 days payment by bank transfer.

Failure to pay by the deadline gives Microanalitica the right to rule out the lab from proficiency testing and deem the contract terminated.

Italian Government Agencies: Upon receipt of the completed application form, an electronic invoice will be issued with payment due 60 days from invoice date.

Failure to pay by the deadline gives Microanalitica the right to rule out the lab from proficiency testing and deem the contract terminated.
